

Precision CNC Machine Centring Vice MC125

Can be used also with centring pins jaws can be reversed for a larger clamping range

Includes mounting kit, hand crank and a pair of serrated jaws

Features:

- Induction hardened guideways
- Grinded body (GGG60 nodular cast iron)
- For conventional clamping, can be used on machine table or on towers
- Keyways for alignment and H6 locating holes
- Side rails for clamping
- Jaw width 125 mm
- Reversible jaws for larger clamping range
- Heat treated jaws
- Clamping force up to 35 kN@200Nm
- Rigid and robust design
- Side windows for quick cleaning of the inside of the vices
- Equipped with a mechanical spindle without force amplification
- Centering accuracy 0.015mm

